Exhibit A: Origin and Breeding History

Variety: ST 5599BR

ST 5599BR was derived from a backcross breeding program utilizing LA 887 as the recurrent parent. The initial cross with HX1422 was made in May 1995 by Monsanto and followed by three backcrosses. HX1422 was an experimental variety that carried the Monsanto transgenic events 531 (Bollgard®) and 1445 (Roundup Ready®).

The self-pollinated BC3F1 seed was delivered to Stoneville Pedigreed Seed Company and used to grow the BC3F2 population in 1997. Plants were screened for the presence of both events. Plants that were positive for both events and phenotypically desirable were selected and planted in South Africa in November 1997. The progeny rows were screened in South Africa to confirm homozygosity for the Bollgard® and Roundup Ready® genes.

At maturity, the BC3F3 progeny rows were evaluated for agronomic characteristics. Individual plants and bulks were harvested from the selected rows. Seed from the individual plants were grown as progeny rows at Stoneville, MS, in May, 1998, and evaluated for purity of the transgenes and agronomic traits versus LA 887 while the bulk seed was used to conduct replicated trials and evaluation for yield, fiber traits, and visual agronomic comparisons of the selected rows versus PM 1220BGRR and NuCOTN 33B.

Data gathered from the 1998 replicated testing and purity evaluations identified a single line that looked and performed the same as LA 887 and also met the purity standards for the Bollgard® and Roundup Ready® genes. Further replicated testing in 2000 indicated that ST 5599BR was more similar to ST 4892BR in performance than LA 887.

Maintenance of the variety

The variety will be maintained through pure line maintenance of breeder seed and production of foundation and registered classes of seed.

Statement of Uniformity and Stability

ST 5599BR has been evaluated in many environments from 1998 to 2002 across the cotton belt by the staff of Stoneville Pedigreed Seed Company and many public researchers. No off-types were detected and no variants were noted in the variety.

ST 5599BR is considered to be uniform and stable.
